Georgetown Will Enter Athletes in Junior Championship Events at New York

HILLTOPPERS WILL ENTER ATHLETES

Georgetown Sprinters to Be in Dashes and Hurdle Race.

CARRIGAN IS GOOD FOR 22-YARD EVENT

Campazzi Will Probably Go Out for Quarter-Mile

Georgetown will be represented in the national junior championships, which are yearly held in New York, for the first time in many seasons, when Cap-tain Carrigan, Bob Eller, Earl Caupassi, and possibly one or two other speed artists wear the blue and gray of the Hilltop school in this year's races. Manager Kingsley, of the track team, has completed arrangements for Georgetewn's re-entry to these games, and December 26, the date of the junior speed carnival, will see the above-mentioned trio battling with the pick of Eastern track marvels for supremacy It has not been definitely decided in what events the Blue and Gray repre-rentatives will be entered, but it is likely that they will compete only in the dashes and hurdle races, although Eller may endeavor to win the shot-put.

Captain Carrigan is recognized as be-ing at his best in the 160 and 220-yard dashes, so, in all probability, he will run in these events, while Campuszi, a wonderful quarter-niller when at Ford-ham Prep, will be down for the 440-yard dash. Eller should be able to win place in the timber-topping races and the shot-put if he enters these contests, as well as giving a good account of himself in the dashes.

Three In Condition. At the present time Carrigan, Campazzi, and Eller are in good condition, for the first two have been in training for the gridiron season, while Eller has been taking preliminary workouts since the beginning of Novamber. Both Carrigan and Campazzi received injuries to their knees during the football campaign, but, according to their own statements, they have fully recovered from these hurts, and will be able to do their best when they arguer in the Metropolis, at the close of this month. The squad will report for their initial workout on Tuesday of this week, and it seems certain that the squad will be the largest that ever turned out for the running game in the history of the sport on the Hilltop. Now that the football season of 1911 has passed into griding history, the measure of the molecular aribe will turn their attention to the cinder paths, and much good material is to be found among the pigakin outfit. Chief among the football men who possess ability in spiked shoes are Vlymen, winner of the 44-yard nandicap in 1910; Costello, a sprinter and nole valler of considerable experience. Magner, a dash man; White, Wymard, and Moriarity, weight men, and Barriscelle, who is a capable performer in the jumps. been taking preliminary workouts since

Many Track Candidates.

Chapman, Bingham, Muiligan, Mattison, Gibbs, Davis, and Martin, of last year's aggregation, will be out for the quarter-mile again, and it is probable that some of these veterans will also go in training for the longer runs. Many newcomers to the institution on the heights have signified their intention of entering the half, mile, and wo-mile rups, and, as the majority of these men have made enviable reputations for themselves in different games through-themselves in different games throughout the country, there seems to be little cause for fear that Georgetown will not be well fortified with experienced material in the lengthy events.

Tom Smith, captain of last year's team, although unable to run in hurdle races, will report for the dashes, along with Martin, who led the track squad of 1910. These veterans, with Carrigan and Eller, should be able to win many points for the Blue and Gray during the coming season.

Hugh Golden, last year the mainstay of the cinder path artists of Georgetown Prep school, and winner of several points in the meets of last winter, will be one of the timber-toppers who shall represent the West End school in the hurdle events. The Los Angeles boy, if he displays the rum he exhibited last season, can be coulsed on to place; if not win, many of the races of 1912. Lanch, of the collegiate department, is the only jumper of known ability that remains of last year's squas, but it is likely that good material for the jumping events will be found among the new candidates.

With a hest of good men for the distance runs, several experienced weight throwers, eleven sprinters, a canalle to be the "luzy kid."

Thirty-five Players

Out for C. U. Quintet

Catholic University has thirty-five candidates out for its basketball team, and Coach Rice, the old Georgetown star player and captain, is delighted with the prospects for the season. As a nucleus for the team four veterans from last year are back again, looking for their old places—Captain McDonnell and Lambert and Greer, centers.

A number of good players with experience have reported to Coach Rice. Jim Horan, captain of Trinity last year, impossible to keep this man of the

Lehigh's Basketball Season Opens Early

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 3.—
The basketball schedule of the Lehigh University quintet calls for eight games at home and seven away. The season will open on December 6. This is the first time in several years that the basketball season opened before the latter part of January. The schedule is also considerably larger than in former years, which meets with the hearty approbation of the students. Princeton, Brown, Gettysburg, Penn State, and Delaware are among the new teams on the list. The schedule:

December 6, at Moravian College; 13, at Frinceton; 16, at Manhattan; 20, 1. banch yalley, at home; January 6, Alkright, at home; 10, Pratt Institute, at home; 13, Gettysburg, at home; 20, at Brown University; February 3, at Delaware; 7. John Ward May Try For Lynch's Position

NEW YORK. Dec. 3 .- John M. Ward, the Giants, now a leading attorney of this city, will attempt to succeed Tom Typnch as president of the National League, if the rumors heard everywhere are true. He tried last year, and nothing but the strong opposition of Han Jahnson, head of the American League, kept him from it. It is said—with emphasis, too—that the mention of his candidacy this year may bring about a serious rupture between the two big leagues.

Fire Gets Both

Two baseball men of prominence have paid toll to the fire demon, George Stallings, the Buffalo manager, former leader of the New York Highlanders, and Johnny Kling, once a great Cub backstop, and last season with the Boston Nationals.

Stallings suffered a $10,000 loss when his ranch home and outbuildings at Haddock, Ga., went up in smoke the other day. Then came a fine young blaze in Kansas City, ruining Kling's $60,000 pool and billiard palace and bowling alleys.

Stallings and Kling are now writing messages of condolence to each other.

CHAMPION COULON'S "BOY MANAGER" IS BUT TWENTY-ONE

And there's more than a homeopathic dose of coromon sense in that query. Johnny will take it easy on his campaign. He will box some there distance bouts around Chicago until he is again in top form and then he expects to be the "lusy kid."

Washington is the center of a lot of real football gossip right now. "Beef" Field, Yale's head coach last season, and Logan Cunningham, who held the same position at Princeton, are both in town, and are usually the center of a knot of football bugs anxious for word from these experts at the college sport.

The championship chess tournament in the Washington Chess and Checker Club will begin about December 15. Tournaments for members who do not wish to enter the championship games are also being arranged.

Charles Farquhar has won four games, and Mr. Potts one, in their checker match. Three games were drawn. The championship chess tournament in

DIAMOND DOPE

Magnate Bradley has withdrawn his offer to sell the Richmond clab, of the Virginia State League.

The Jergey City club, of the Eastern Leggue, is figuring on making a train-ing trip to Bermuda next spring. Though quite farcical, Juiged by the season's play, the Boston Nationals were outbatted only by the pennant-winning Giants. The New York Giants stole 347 bases last year. Clark Griffith's Cincinnati team came second, with 289. Pittsburgh came in last with 160 thefts.

Magnate Grayson, of Louisville, is willing to finance the Massillon, Ohio, tea n. in the Ohio State Learne, if the can be assured of an attendance of 45,000

Fd Carman, an umpire in the Cotton States League last season, lied the other day from being struck in the neck by a foul tip. He had been speechless since his accident.

Elmer Thorsen, formerly a pitcher with the Los Angeles club, of the Pacific Coast League, has quit the game to sell automobiles. He quite destaired of having one presented to him. Now it is claimed that Mike Ponlin.

Now it is claimed that Mike Ponlin, the vaudeville actor, was merely loaned to the Boston club in order to let him demonstrate that he 'ould come back. Lynch's league is a funny proposition.

The National League has been hard hit by the old man with the scythe in the past few years. President Harry Pulliam, President George Dovey and President William H. Russell, both of the Boston club; President Robison, of the St. Louis club; Col. John I. Rogers, and President Harry Vonderhorst, of the Phillies, have all passed away.

Jesse Tannehili, once a famous south-paw twirler, with the Pittsburgh Na-tions, the Boston, New York, and Washington American League clubs, wants to manage some ball club. He is wintering in Cincinnati, but is willing to summer anywhere at all if he can get the coin.

Mike Lynch, once a sterling college pitcher when at Brown, later playing with the Pittsburgh and New York National League clubs, is grinning over the arrival of a boy at his home in Providence, where he is now practicing law.

Hobe Ferris is wintering in Provi-ience, R. I., after a successful year with the Minneapolis Millers. Ferris was a star second baseman when with Jimmy Collins' champion Boston Amer-icans, later playing third tase for Jim-my McAleer in St. Louis. The coming winter meeting of the major leagues in New York should see the sales of the Boston National and St. Louis American League clubs. Right how the National League has two clubs owned by women-St. Louis and Boston. Both clubs were inherited by widows.

Oak Park Wins.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Oak Park High School, champions of Cook county, defeated St. John's eleven, from Danvers, Mass., here yesterday by a score of 17 to 0, and now claim the high school championship of the country. St. John's is the strongest schoolboy eleven in New England, and was expected to put up a better fight than it did. In the first half Oak Park School scored eleven points and, after letting up somewhat in the second half, managed to score a touchdown. The largest crowd ever witnessing a schoolboy game was present.

CARROLL RECEIVES 36 TO 16 DEFEAT BY Y. M. C. A. QUINT

Winners Are Outweighed, But Excel in Speed and Shooting.

Showing winning ability from the beginning, the quint of the Y. M. C. A. won from the Carroll Institute five by 66 to 16. The game took place at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and was witnessed by an enthusiastic crowd of rooters from each athletic organization and the number of spetcators at last night"s contest indicates that this year's games will be well attended.

At the very opening of the game ten points were registered by Y. M. C. A. and then the visitors succeeded in scoring at all. After this margin was gained the winners kept a safe distance in advance of Carroll and the lead was never overcome. The Carroll quint outweighs the Y. M. C. A. outfit by many pounds to the man, and a victory for the lighter team against such odds is gratifying to the association followers. In defensive work Y. M. C. A. played the superior game from the outset, and dates had some lively practice this it was this strong quality that won the Manhattans still keep the lead in the Colonial League, that team having a percentage of .833. Pilgrims and Knickerbockers follow with .625 and .593. In the Departmental League the Commissioners, Navy and Agriculture form a trip e tie for highest percentage. Each a um has won fourteen out of twenty-o. e matches which gives them a percentage of .667. A good duckpin record was established by B. J. Coulehan of Couberland, Md., who rolled three straight games with an average 138. His scores were 136, 128 and 150. Total 414.

First place in the District Duckpin League is still held by the Garrison five. The Good Fellows are slightly ever one game behind the leaders, the former having rolled 13,780 pins while Good Fel-lows rolled 13,523 to date.

News comes from Chicago that a one-armed bowler by the name of O'Leary won the individual title in the city pin tournament. O'Leary rolled a record breaking total of Ill. This is the high-est mark ever made in the tourna-ment since it was instituted in 1904.
